(LVth YEAR.) THE (No. 2757.)

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1799.

SUABIA, September 1.

THE attack which the Auſtrians expected to make near Zurich, had not taken place on the 29th; but that army was continually in motion, on account of the new arrangements neceſſary by the arrival of the Ruſſians. The garriſon of Zurich conſiſts entirely of Ruſſians, who are now at the head of the line. Strong reinforcements could be ſeen from Zurich, arriving at the left wing of Maſſena's army, and it was thought he intended an attack. In the villages on the lake of Zurich, French ſentiments ſtill prevail, and the enemy is informed by them of every motion of the Imperial army; ſpies are daily apprehended.

The French general Dumont will be exchanged for general Bay. Neither the exchange of general Mack, nor propoſals for peace, are now ſpoken of.

Lavater had an audience of the archduke, which laſted two hours. He was graciouſly received, and ſhed tears on returnings from him.

VIENNA, Auguſt 31.

Field-marſhal lieutenant count Bellegarde arrived here yeſterday from Italy. He is to go as ambaſſador to Berlin. General Dietrichſtein will depart for Berlin to night with extraordinary diſpatches.

Advices from Italy and Switzerland ſtate, that both armies are preparing new and important operations. In Switzerland, 15,000 Ruſſians and 8000 Auſtrians are deſtined for a ſecret expedition, which will draw the attention of the French to different quarters. A ſufficient force has been detached againſt the French in the ſmall cantons of Uri and Schwitz, to fruſtrate their deſign of attacking the army of the archduke in the rear, which they muſt by this time have effected. But as the French might eaſily advance, from the canton of Schwitz, againſt Chur, the inhabitants of the Griſon are ordered to riſe in a maſs. Similar orders have alſo this moment been iſſued for the inhabitants of Vor-Arlberg and Tyrol.

It is ſaid here that Tortona had capitulated on the 21ſt, according to other accounts on the 23d. Italian papers ſtate the ſame, adding, that the beſieging army of 9000 men had already joined the main army, which had now no more fortified places, occupied by the enemy, in its rear. Our Court Gazette is ſilent on this ſubject.

The duke of Modena left Gratz on the 21ſt inſtant, and is returning to his capital.

The emperor of Ruſſia is raiſing a new army on the frontiers of Poland, which is to conſiſt of 120,000 men.

INSPRUCK, Auguſt 29.

The news of the ſurrender of Tortona acquires a greater degree of credit. Private letters ſtate, that 4000 Ruſſians have entered Genoa. According to accounts received by the laſt poſt, the Bochetta was taken, and the allies advance in two different directions againſt Genoa.

STUTGARD, September 1.

Sztarray is haſtily advancing with an army of 20,000 men, and every where preparations are making for the reception of his troops, and to furniſh them with bread and forage; the advanced guard is already arrived at Kalw. A new army of the Rhine is organizing under the archduke, which will conſiſt of 50,000 men. A courier from the archduke to prince Conde has paſſed through here, on his way to Prague, to deſire him to haſten his march to Bamberg, and there to embark, for the ſake of expedition.

The Imperial magazines at Heilbrunn had been removed before the French arrived there: they left that place again, on receiving a contribution of 80,000 florins. A printer in that city was ſhot in his own houſe.

The biſhoprick of Spires has been ſeverely treated by the French. At Bruchſal they demanded 800 pair of ſhoes, and 150,000 florins, which they afterwards lowered to 100,000; but only 21,000 florins being paid at noon, they took three hoſtages with them, who, however, made their eſcape at Lanye. Moſt of the prince biſhop's effects had been removed from Bruchſal before their arrival. The village of Sinzheim is nearly burnt to the ground.

HANAU, September 3.

Part of the armed inhabitants of the electorate of Mentz amounting to 5000 men, advanced to-day along the left bank of the Mayn, coming from Steinheim, oppoſite our fortreſs, and other places, towards Francfort: from thence they will proceed farther, to protect the hayeſt of the inhabitants of the electorate. They are accompanied by electorial artillery, huſſars, and infantry, at the rate of one ſoldier to 10 men, and commanded by the municipal officers. Lieutenant general de Faber has the chief command; he was accompanied by baron Albini as far Selingenſtadt. The peaſants, having aſſembled at Aſchaffenburg, would be detained no longer, but deſired to be led againſt the French. On being aſked whither they are marching, their anſwer is:—Strait to Mentz. The inhabitants of Iſenburg and other neighbouring countries have been deſired to join them.—Heſſe and Francfort remain neutral.—Baron Albini ſent an officer to Francfort to concert proper meaſures with the ſenate for arming the inhabitants: it was Sunday an extraordinary meeting of the ſenate took place, and in the evening the officer returned to Aſchaffenburg with their anſwer, in which they refuſed to join; but, notwithſtanding this, a diviſion will march along the bridge of the Mayn, at Francfort. In Wirtzburg and Bamberg, the people are likewiſe arming. Near Selingenſtadt the armed peaſants have taken a French ſpy.

Public papers ſay that the archduke is to receive the title of prince of Lorraine. The army with which that prince is marching towards the Rhine, will conſiſt of 40,000 men. The general of artillery, Kray, will enter the ſouth of Switzerland from Italy. The archduke has 35,000 cavalry, including the Ruſſians, who cannot act with advantage in Switzerland, and are to be employed elſewhere.

Several thouſands of the troops of the duke of Wirtemburg will join the Auſtrians, 700 of them, with 8 pieces of cannon have already united with them near Lauffen. The Bavarian troops, 3000 of whom are at and near Donauwerth, on the news of the French marching againſt Suabia, received orders ſpeedily to advance toward Ellwangen, to protect the Imperial magazines at that place. Field-marſhal lieutenant Kerpen had alſo taken all neceſſary meaſures to ſecure Ulm againſt an attack of the enemy.

LONDON, September 9.

Extract of a letter from an officer on board a ſhip in admiral Mitchel's ſquadron.

"In the Mars Deip, September 5.

"I avail myſelf of the opportunity of the departure of the Argus cutter to write you a few lines, and to inform you that every thing goes on to our ſatisfaction. The Argus carries home thirteen ſtand of colours, taken from on board the captured ſhips of the enemy, which we had the pleaſure to ſee come to anchor off the Helder Point yeſterday afternoon from the Vleiter channel, where they lay at the time of their ſurrender. They are now ſafely moored in the centre of the Engliſh fleet, between the Texel iſland and the Helder, and both ſhips and officers are to be ſent to England as ſoon as matters are arranged, the America, Ratviſan and Latona, which have been aground, will accompany them, being in want of repairs.

"I hope ſoon to be enabled to ſend you an account of ulterior ſucceſſes; as our gallant admiral, whoſe zeal is beyond all praiſe, is preparing a flotilla of light ſhips and gun boats, with which he purpoſes to annoy, and even bombard Amſterdam, ſhould that capital not declare for the ſtadtholder.

"Sir Ralph Abercromby, with a great part of the army, has advanced about 18 miles beyond the Helder Point. The remaining diviſions are employed in throwing up fortifications along the narrow part of the peninſula. It is thought that they wait for the arrival of the duke of York, and the reinforcements which are expected to accompany him, before any further military operations will take place. A great number of Dutch ſoldiers have deſerted to us. They are eſtimated at 1000; among whom is the Dutch general Sontag.

"This morning arrived the 15th regiment of light dragoons from Ramſgate, after a paſſage of 48 hours: they are now landing. The Dutch never before ſaw ſo fine a regiment on their ground.

"P. S. It is this moment reported that Alkmaer has ſurrendered to our troops, but I cannot vouch for the truth of this news."

GLASGOW, September 14.

This day's Iriſh mail.

We ſtop the preſs to inſert the following intelligence received by this day's Iriſh mail:

Dublin Journal office, 12 o'clock.

We haſten to lay before our readers, in addition to the other glorious intelligence of this day, the following letters received by this morning's poſt from Galway and Limerick. The captain of the Carysfort paſſed through Dublin early this morning, and was, with his diſpatches, forwarded to Holyhead in the Frolic cutter.

Extract of a letter from Galway, dated September 8.

"I have the pleaſure to inform you, that an Eaſt-India packet arrived this day in our port, and brings the glorious intelligence of the capture of Seringapatam by our troops. Tippoo himſelf killed in the action, and every way the moſt complete ſucceſs."

FROM LIMERICK.

Sunday night, September 8.

The Carysfort frigate from the Eaſt-Indies is arrived in our river—the captain ſetting is going off for London. It is underſtood he brings very important and pleaſing intelligence, which he declines to mention here."

PORTLAND, October 21.

FROM EUROPE.

Saturday laſt arrived ſhip Merchant, captain Webb, 48 days from London.—Captain Webb touched at Dover, where he ſaw an account which had been received from a major in the Engliſh expedition againſt Holland, mentioning that the ſecond expedition had landed and been ſucceſsful.

LEXINGTON, (Ken.) September 5.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Ohio county, to the editor, dated 15th Auguſt.

"Juſt after candle light, on the 13th inſtant, there fell the moſt extraordinary hail that I ever ſaw or heard of; it appeared as though it would break through the roof of the houſe; by holding a candle at the door, we could diſcover the uncommon ſize of them. I got a young man of my family to venture out and bring in one, and after being handled from one of another (it muſt of courſe, have loſt conſiderably in weight and meaſure) we found it to be ten inches round, and weighed over three quarters, and very near a pound. I put it in a large glaſs, and next morning meaſured the water therefrom, and there was juſt 3 gills—On examination the next morning, found it had actually ſplit clap boards, and cut off a great number of corn ſtalks, as ſhort as a common hall would have done, and really went through and maſhed to pieces pompions and watermelons; killed turkeys, hens and pigs. There was a neighbouring woman gathered a pail full of the congealed water, and at 12 o'clock the day following they were as large as hen eggs. It did not go through the woods and fell trees, but very conſiderably trimmed them of their limbs and leaves."

NEW-YORK, November 8.

By the Winyaw, from Bombay, we have received the Bombey Courier to 15th June, which contains the important intelligence of the taking of Seringapatam by ſtorm by the Engliſh—in which Tippoo Saib was killed—his whole family made priſoners, and his immenſe treaſures taken.

BOMBAY, June 4.

COURIER EXTRAORDINARY.

June 4.

The arrival of the Madras poſt this morning has enabled us to lay the following moſt intereſting detail before the public, which we have copied from the Madras Gazette extraordinary of the 15th ultimo. The orders of the right honourable the governor-general, containing his lordſhip's ſentiments on the merits of the army, and the importance of their conqueſt, place both in ſo juſt and ſo conſpicuous a point of view, that no comment of ours can add to the luſtre of either.

The following copy of a letter from lieutenant-general Harris, to the right honourable the governor general, dated Seringapatam, 7th May, 1799, is publiſhed by his lordſhip's authority.

J. WEBBE, Sec. to Gov.

MY LORD,

On the 4th inſtant, I had the honour to addreſs to your lordſhip a haſty note, containing in a few words the ſum of our ſucceſs, which I have now to report more in detail.

The fire of our batteries, which began to batter and breach on the 30th April, had on the evening of the 3d inſtant, ſo much deſtroyed the walls, againſt which it was directed, that the arrangement was then made for aſſaulting the place on the following day, when the breach was reported practicable. The troops intended to be employed were ſtationed in the trenches, early in the morning of the 4th, that no extraordinary movements might lead the enemy to expect the aſſault, which I had determined to make in the heat of the day, as the time beſt calculated to enforce ſucceſs, as their troops would then be leaſt prepared to oppoſe.

Ten flank companies of Europeans, taken from thoſe regiments, neceſſarily left to guard our camp and out poſts, followed by the 12th, 33d, 73d and 74th regiments, and three corps of grenadier ſepoys, taken from the troops of the three preſidencies, with 200 of his highneſs the Nizam's troops, formed the party for the aſſault, accompanied by 100 of the artillery, and corps of pioneers, and ſupported in the trenches by the battalion companies of the regiment De Meuron, and four battalions of Madras Sepoys, colonel Sherbrook, and lieutenant-colonels Dunlop, Dalrymple, Gardiner and Mignan, commanded the ſeveral flank companies; and major-general Baird was entruſted with the direction of this important ſervice.

At one o'clock the troops moved from the trenches, croſſed the rocky bed of the Cavery under an extremely heavy fire, paſſed the glacis and diſch, and aſcended the breaches in the fauſſe brave and rampart of the fort, ſurmounting in the moſt gallant manner every obſtacle which the difficulty of the paſſage and the reſiſtance of the enemy preſented to oppoſe their progreſs.——Major general Baird had divided his force for the purpoſe of clearing the ramparts to the right and left. One diviſion was commanded by colonel Sherbrooke, the other by lieutenant-colonel Dunlop, the latter was diſabled in the breach, but both corps, although ſtrongly oppoſed, were completely ſucceſsful. Reſiſtance continued to be made from the palace of Tippoo for ſome time after all firing had ceaſed from the works; two of his ſons were there, who on aſſurance of ſafety ſurrendered to the troops ſurrounding them; and guards were placed for the protection of the family, moſt of whom were in the palace. It was ſoon after reported that Tippoo Sultan had fallen. Syed Seheb, Meer Sauc, Syed Goſar, and many other of his chiefs were alſo ſlain. Meaſures were immediately adopted to ſtop the confuſion at firſt unavoidable in a city ſtrongly garriſoned, crowded with inhabitants and their property, in ruins from the fire of a numerous artillery, and taken by aſſault.—The princes were removed to camp.

It appeared to major-general Baird ſo important to aſcertain the fate of the ſultan, that he cauſed immediate ſearch to be made for his body, which, after much difficulty, was found late in the evening in one of the gates under a heap of ſlain, and ſoon after placed in the palace. The corpſe was the next day recognized by the family, and interred, with the honours due to his rank, in the mauſoleum of his father.

The ſtrength of the fort is ſuch, both from its natural poſition and the ſtupendous works, by which it is ſurrounded, that all the exertions of the brave troops, who attack it, in whoſe praiſe it is impoſſible to ſay too much, were required to place it in our hands.—Of the merits of the army I have expreſſed my opinion in orders, a copy of which I have the honour to encloſe; and I truſt your lordſhip will point out their ſervices to the favourable notice of their king and country.

I am ſorry to add that on collecting the return of our loſs, it is found to have been much heavier, than I had at firſt imagined.

On the 5th inſtant, Abdul Khalic, the elder of the princes, formerly hoſtage with lord Cornwallis, ſurrendered himſelf at our out poſts, demanding protection. Kerim Seheb, the brother of Tippoo, had before ſought refuge with Meer Alum Behauder. A Cowl Namah, was yeſterday diſpatched to Futteh Hyder, the eldeſt ſon of Tippoo, inviting him to join his brothers, Putneah and Meer Kummer odeen Khan have alſo been ſummoned to Seringapatam; no anſwers have yet been received, but I expect them ſhortly, as their families are in the fort.

This moment Ali Reza, formerly one of the Vazeels from Tippoo Sultan to lord Cornwallis, has arrived at Meer Cummer odeen Khan, to aſk my orders for 4000 horſe, now under his command. Ali Reza was commiſſioned to declare that Meer Kummer odeen would make no conditions, but rely on the generoſity of the Engliſh.

Monſieur Chapuy and moſt of the French are priſoners; they have commiſſions from the French government.

I have the honour, &c.
(Signed) GEORGE HARRIS.

PHILADELPHIA, November 6.

The following paragraph is copied from an Albany paper.

A gentleman recently from Trenton, aſſerts that there is no foundation in truth for the rumour which has circulated reſpecting the determination of the combined powers not to conſider any nation as neutral; at leaſt, that no credit is to be attached to the report that intelligence of ſuch a nature has been communicated to the American adminiſtration.

November 7.

The frigate United States, we hear, will ſail direct for l'Orient, with the envoys.

Extract of a letter from captain Alexander Murray, of the Inſurgent, dated Liſbon, September 16, 1799.

"I ſhall immediately leave this place to cruiſe off Cadiz and Algeſiras, and from there to Madeira where I hear our commerce has been greatly diſtreſſed by French cruiſers.

"I had 30 days paſſage to this port, but could have been here in three weeks, but for chaſing every thing we ſaw, all of which we overhaled, except one veſſel which we loſt ſight of in the night. Since paſſing the Azores, we have boarded 30 veſſels of different nations, but the greater part Britiſh, and met with but one Britiſh ſhip of war, from whence you may judge of the unprotected ſtate of their trade, as well as our own in thoſe ſeas. I am told here, that vaſt numbers of corvettes and privateers have iſſued from the ports in France, ſince the fleets got into Breſt. I hope we ſhall be able to give a good account of ſome of them.

BALTIMORE, November 9.

CONSULATE OF HAVANNA,
October 18, 1799.

[CIRCULAR.]

SIR,

I HASTEN to inform you that a decree was yeſterday paſſed by the government of this iſland, for the admiſſion of neutrals, on the ſame terms and regulations as previous to the late royal order, until the determination of his moſt Catholic majeſty is known with regard to the repreſentations, which will go forward in a packet that is to ſail from this city in a few days hence; only excluding from this conceſſion all veſſels and property captured and condemned by the enemies of Spain, which, under no cover or pretext, will be admitted.

Be pleaſed, Sir, to make this intelligence public.

I have the honour to be, reſpectfully,
Your obedient ſervant,
JOHN MORTON,
Conſul of the United States of America.

The collector of the port of Baltimore.

By the George Waſhington, arrived in this port from Yarmouth.

PARIS, September 3.

The followin gparticulars of the laſt actions in Switzerland are given as authentic in the Journal de Paris.

"The diviſion of the Valais, commanded by general Thereau, having under his orders generals Jourdan and Jacobin, firſt cut off the enemy's communication between his camp of Lax and the Simplon, by the hardy manœuvre of carrying the poſt of Roſenwald. It afterwards occupied the Simplon, forced the camp of Lax, and aſcended the Rhone to its ſource. This diviſion took 1800 priſoners and 3 cannon.

"General Lecourbe, ſeconded by the generals of brigade, Gudin, Loiſon and Boivin, diſpoſed his attack in the following manner: general Boivin had orders to proceed againſt Schwitz: he defeated the enemy under general Maſſena's eyes, who was preſent at this attack, and took Schwitz. General Gudin had orders to aſcend the valley of the Aar: he carried the poſts of the Grimſel, and of Mount la Fourche, with the bayonet, and afterwards marched againſt Urſeren: he took 500 priſoners. General Loiſon was charged to penetrate into the valley of Urſeren, by Waſen.

"A ſmall fort, covered on the one ſide by the torrent of Meyen, and on the other by ſteep rocks, defended by 400 men and 2 cannon, ſhut the entrance to the road, which was only a foot way. General Loiſon forced the paſſage, took the two cannon, and 300 priſoners. Another attack was to be made on the lake of Lucerne and Altorf. General Lecourbe took charge of it himſelf: he overthrew the enemy, carried all his poſitions on the lake, took Altorf, and then marched againſt Waſen: after having made, on this point, his junction with general Loiſon, he purſued the enemy as far as the Devil's Bridge, which he found cut down. He was repairing this bridge, when the brigade of general Gudin, coming from Urſeren, appeared on the other border; there the union of the three brigades of that brave diviſion was effected. Lecourbe then attacked the enemy who covered the paſſage into the Griſon country: he completed his defeat, and purſued him as far as Diſſentis.

"The diviſion Chabran, commanded by the general of that name and the generals Humbert and Laval, was directed againſt the important poſts of Wolran and Infiedlen. Repulſed ſeveral times, it at length, by a bold manœuvre, turned the enemy's left flank and forced him to retreat. A column of 2000 Auſtrians was cut off and taken priſoners.

"During theſe operations, the diviſions of Lorge and Sault formed a feigned attack on Zurich. They carried off from the enemy his great guards. Finally, the enemy thought that our movements on our right had weakened our left, and in order to attack it, he attempted the paſſage of the Aar. He was repulſed by the 5th diviſion of the army of the Danube, and ſome Tyrolians were taken priſoners.

"General Oudinot, chief of the general ſtaff was wounded in the ſhoulder, in the attack of Schwitz.

"The reſults of theſe glorious actions have been already publiſhed.

"The offices of the department of foreign affairs are, it is ſaid, to undergo an entire reform."

If the result of your inquiries should prove that I am diligent and attentive to business, that I am competent to discharge the duties of the office with ability and integrity, I shall be very happy to obtain your preference.

I am, gentlemen,
Your most obedient servant,
JOSEPH M'CENEY.

THIS is to give notice, that from the variety of misfortunes and losses I have met with, I am reduced to the disagreeable necessity of applying to the general assembly for an act of insolvency, to relieve me from debts I am totally unable to pay.

HENRY GASSAWAY.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, living in Calvert county, Maryland, a mulatto man named JOHN, but if he does not change his name he probably will call himself JOHN WHITINGTON, he is about twenty-one years of age, a short well set fellow, but rather clumsy, he has a broad full face, has his hair commonly queued, a large mouth, and his lips rather thick, with remarkable broad teeth, which are wide apart in front; what cloathing he had and took with him is not known, but it is probable he has on a light coloured coat and black breeches, and will likely appear decently dressed; he will no doubt attempt to pass as a free man, and his intention is, I suppose, to get either to Baltimore or the Federal city. Whoever apprehends said fellow, and secures him in any gaol, so that I get him again, shall receive (if taken up thirty miles from home) the above reward, and thirty dollars if a smaller distance, and reasonable charges paid if brought home.

HAMILTON's

WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES.

RECENT CURES.

(From the Baltimore papers.)

An infant (aged 5 weeks) of Mr. Henry Ewbank's, tailor, Charles-street, was dangerously afflicted with convulsion fits, so that his life was despaired of, but was perfectly cured by one dose of Hamilton's worm lozenges, which expelled several worms, the undoubted cause of the child's disorder.

A sister of the above gentleman, aged 22 years, living at New-Castle, Delaware, after exhibiting for upwards of 15 months, every symptom of an increasingly dangerous consumption, experienced a rapid recovery, by the use of this medicine.

A letter to the proprietor of Hamilton's worm destroying lozenges.

July 10, 1799.

SIR,

I had been a long time afflicted with a violent and gnawing pain in my stomach, a dull, heavy continual head-ache, with a frequent swimming in my head, accompanied with dimness of sight, and some times partial blindness, and was rendered incapable of attending my business, through loss of strength; some times could scarcely eat a morsel for two or three days; when my appetite would suddenly become astonishingly voracious. I firmly believed myself to be in a consumption, which must soon put a period to my life: when happily hearing of several cures performed by Hamilton's worm lozenges, in complaints which could not be accounted for, I took two doses, which expelled an incredible number of small sharp pointed worms: in short, I now enjoy as perfect health and strength as ever I did in my life, and I believe my cure to be entirely effected by means of your medicine.

My brother witnessing its surprising efficacy was induced to take a dose, though in tolerable good health, which occasioned him likewise to void a great quantity of worms of the same kind, and thereby probably prevented his experiencing those dreadful disorders with which I was afflicted.

A sincere desire that others in similar circumstances may receive the same benefit, is the reason for my ending you this account.

Yours, very respectfully,
AQUILA GOLDING, Harford road
two miles from Baltimore.

The numberless cures performed by this medicine, render it interesting to persons of every age and in every situation. Its efficacy is equally proved in preventing as in removing disease; it effectually cleanses and strengthens the stomach and bowels, so necessary at this season of the year, and the proprietor solemnly assures the public, that it may be administered with the greatest safety to the tenderest infant of a week old, or the most delicate pregnant lady, and he challenges any individual among the hundred in Baltimore who have purchased this medicine to specify any disagreeable or injurious effect that has followed its use.

SOVEREIGN OINTMENT FOR THE ITCH,

Warranted an infallible and immediate cure at once using.

Being the most speedy, effectual, and pleasant remedy ever offered to the public, and for the satisfaction of the timorous, the proprietor maketh oath, that this ointment doth not contain a single particle of mercury or any other pernicious ingredient in its composition, and may be used with the most perfect safety by pregnant women and on infants newly born.

They possess a peculiar antiseptic quality, which they powerfully communicate to the system, and enable it to resist effectually the attacks of putrid and malignant fevers of every description.

They have never failed producing the happiest effects in cases of languor and debility; sickness at the stomach, and loss of appetite; giddiness and severe head-ache, and ought to be taken by all persons on entering a warmer climate than their native—They are of peculiar use to seamen, and ought to have a place in every medicine chest.

FREDERICK KOONES.

COMMITTED to my custody as a runaway, on the 26th of August, a negro man by the name of ROBERT LOVELESS, about 28 or 30 years old, five feet nine inches high, flat nose, middling hollow eyes, a small scar on his right hand, apparently by a burn, another on his left leg, several marks on his back, a remarkable scar on the right side of his upper lip, and a small one on his forehead; his cloathing was a blue cloth coat, with a single row of yellow metal buttons, a blue kersey waistcoat, striped cotton trousers, spotted cotton hose, Irish linen shirt, good coarse shoes, and an old felt hat. When committed he said he was free, and was from Louisa county, Virginia, had a forged pass signed THOMAS CROWDY; he since says he is lately from the service of a certain PARK STREET, about seven miles from Hanover Court-house, Virginia, but does not acknowledge himself a slave. His owner (if any) is desired to release him within two months from the above date, or he will be sold agreeable to law for prison fees, &c.

NOTLEY MADDOX, Sheriff of Prince-George's county.

September 10, 1799.

By his EXCELLENCY

BENJAMIN OGLE,

GOVERNOR of MARYLAND,

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it has been represented to me, by the mayor and other respectable citizens of the city of Baltimore, that on Wednesday the 21st day of last month, a most outrageous and shocking murder was committed on the body of a certain GEORGE MALLINGER, while travelling on the high road leading from Baltimore to Belle-Air, about twelve miles from the former place: to prevent such enormities, and to bring the perpetrator or perpetrators thereof to punishment, I have therefore thought proper, by and with the advice and consent of the council, to issue this my proclamation, thereby offering a reward of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS to any person who shall discover the perpetrator or perpetrators thereof, so that he, she, or they, or any of them, be convicted thereof. And I do further offer and promise full and free pardon to any person being an accomplice herein, who shall discover and make known the person or persons by whom the said crime was committed, so that he, she, or they be convicted thereof.

Given in council, at the city of Annapolis, under the seal of the State of Maryland, this fifteenth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine.

BEN. OGLE.

By the Governor,
NINIAN PINKNEY, Clerk
of the governor and council.

To be SOLD,

By private bargain,

THREE tracts or parcels of LAND, lying in Anne-Arundel county, two of which are part of Anne-Arundel Manor, lying about half a mile from the cross roads, the other about the same distance from Mrs. Rawlings's tavern, on the Mount Pleasant road to Marlborough from Annapolis; they will be sold altogether, separately, or in lots, as purchasers may incline. For terms apply to the subscriber, at Doden, near South river church.

DAVID STEUART.

October 23, 1799.

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD

For apprehending the murderous villain.

RAN away from the subscriber, living in Baltimore county, near the Gunpowder Quaker meeting-house, on the 23d ultimo, a dark mulatto man named PAUL, about 25 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, remarkably stout and well set, has a full round face, with thick lips, wears his wool queued about 3 inches in length, and plaited over each ear, walks with his toes very much out. It is uncertain what cloaths he has on, as I expect some of his friends may furnish him with others; he may probably change his name, and get some free negro's pass. He was raised at Annapolis by col. Richard Weems, and is acquainted in the lower counties, whither he may attempt to go now. The above reward will be paid for securing him in any gaol, and information given to me, so that I get him again. w 4

WILLIAM HALL.

N. B. The evening he made his escape he attempted to murder his master, by giving him a severe wound on the head with a club, without the least provocation. Masters of vessels and others are forewarned harbouring or carrying him off at their peril.
